Many Testify to Power of "Aunt Mollie," Who Lives in Remote Georgia.

ATLANTA, Oct. 28.-Such mir aculous cures are being performed by a negro woman known as "Aunt Mollie," living in the country near Valdosta, Ga., that people from all parts of the South, and from States as far away as Mains, are journeying to her home in an effort to find relief from suffering.

She is reported to have cured cashs of cancer, tuberculosis and chronic heart affections, and many less serious allments, such as stomach trouble, rheumatism and ecsema. She has done this simply by laying her hands on the sufferern and telling them over and over again that their disease was leaving them and that they were growing stronger afain.

Coue, the mose name is being distributed the world.

At the time a reporter made a visit be the negro woman's home he found 149 people there, and he learned that often as many as 300 may be completed at her door, some crippled, except half-blind, some terribly wasted by disease, but all filled with the hope that they can find at her hands the cure that dectors falled to give. So many people have come to see left that she has employed a secretary, and it is necessary first to see in and make an engagement before unit Mollie can be seen. The organization here is to be along somewhat different lines from some of the clubs, for there is to be no limit upon the membership, save that it will be for men who are Christians and promise to be faithful to some evangelical church. It is to be divided into smaller organizations so that each smaller unit will have some older Christian owas it to watch over the younger men it to watch over the younger men in an effort to keep them faithful in their church attendance. These smaller units, too, will from time to time be asked to attend evangelistic meetings, not to preach but to give personal testimony in a brief speech. These campaigns are to be carried into the suburbs of the city and out into neighboring counties and towns, where such a work is asked for in the future. The plan for the Sunday club for the present is for weekly meetings each Sunday afternoon at some church in the city and it is not improbable that later these meetings will be thrown open to women as well as to men. While the Sunday club is at work perfecting its organization for evan-gelistic work, the women in the Virgenatic work, the women in the virginia Asher clubs are making their plane for keeping up Bible study classes and community prayer services in cottages, which were held during the campaign.

The Sunday club is to take over the shop prayer meeting work, which has been done for some years by ministers. Nineteen such meet ings were manned during this week by men who volunteered for the service at the organization meeting Monday night. In a few days hundreds of local churchmen will be wearing a Sunday use on one's coat lapel.

The officers of the club have worked hard this week to get plans in shape for the first evangelistic meeting of the club to be held tomorrow afternoon. The men are to assemble at the Y. M. C. A., but if it is found that the crowd is too large then the meeting will adjourn to Centenary Methodist Church.
